

RSCM Millennium Youth Choir

10th anniversary celebrations

Saturday 16th - Sunday 17th October 2010

The RSCM Millennium Youth Choir celebrates its 10th anniversary in 2010! You're invited to a weekend of celebrations - come and sing as part of a choir made up of past and present members, enjoy a black tie party in the evening and take part in a celebratory concert on Sunday afternoon featuring your favourites from the MYC repertoire!

The venue for the weekend is St Peter's, Eaton Square, London, a church with a uniquely pure acoustic and beautiful neo-classical setting.

The staff team is made up of David Ogden (conductor), Hilary Llystyn Jones (vocal coach) and Daniel Moulton (organist). We are delighted that the Millennium Youth Choir's former conductor Gordon Stewart will be attending, as well as members of Voces8. We hope to sing a piece specially written by Martin Neary; and the RSCM's Director, Lindsay Gray, will lead a toast to the Millennium Youth Choir at the dinner. The cost of the participation in the weekend including the black tie dinner is £85 - this includes a contribution to costs such as the venue hire and professional fees, music hire and administration as well as your ticket for the black tie party.

Partners are also invited to attend the dinner at a cost of £45 (and are of course welcome to come to hear the service and concert too).

We have some accommodation available at St Katharine's Retreat Centre for the night of Saturday 16th at a cost of £45.
